

Non-attendance of judge—adjournment.

Section 9. In case the judge of any district court does not attend at the place of holding the same, by four o'clock in the afternoon on the first day of the term, the sheriff or clerk shall forthwith open and adjourn the same until nine o'clock in the forenoon of the succeeding day; and if the judge does not then appear, the court shall again be adjourned until nine o'clock of the next day; and if the judge does not then appear, it shall be adjourned without day, and the jury dismissed by one of said officers.

Provided, That any term of the said court, general or special, may be adjourned to a time certain, by the clerk or sheriff, upon the direction of the judge, either personally or communicated by letter or telegram, and without the presence of the judge. And in case of the adjournment of the court to a time certain, the juries may be required to appear at such adjournment thereon without further notice.

Approved February 10, 1876.
